

LEIGH A. SHOUP

Leigh Shoup is the executive assistant to the Chancellor of Vanderbilt University. She previously worked as the program coordinator at Pepperdine School of Law. Currently a candidate for a M.Ed. in Organizational Leadership at Vanderbilt University, she has an interest in leadership theory, educational policy, and higher education. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Nazareth College of Rochester, NY. Leigh Shoup will be joining the delegation as a research assistant to Professor Pearl Sims.