

MARGARET HORN

Margaret Horn is the Senior Management Consultant in the Tennessee Governor's Policy and Planning Office and a member of the Governor's team coordinating the 2009 American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. Before joining the Policy and Planning Office, Ms. Horn worked with Governor Bredesen in his education software company, Bredex 2000, and followed him to the Governor's Office as Director of Community Affairs. Ms. Horn has also worked as a Director of a Higher Education Service Learning Program at Duke University, Statewide Grants Officer for the Tennessee AmeriCorps program, and has served as the Board Chair of Hands on Nashville. She has a BA from Vanderbilt and an MA from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Her primary responsibility today is managing Tennessee's involvement with the American Diploma Project, the Gates Foundation funded College and Career Ready Policy Institute, and higher education-related American Recovery and Reinvestment Act projects. She also represents the Governor on the Education Commission of the States.